PREFACE

I am a channel for the Ultimate Light, Elohim, Stargate Keeper, and Guardian of the Universes.

My first three books are a trilogy in Consciousness, the “Book Of Life”, “Life Essence”, and “The One”. They are designed to move us into higher levels of consciousness, using the sacred Ancient energy technology of Light, based upon Fibonacci sequencing.

My fourth book “Communications from the Stars” is a series of channellings from Lightbeings, Galactic Councils, Collective Consciousnesses, and Archangels. There are messages from Yeshua, The Yeshua Collective, Salusa, Archangel Michael and many more. They offer their help, and support at this amazing time of transition in our lives.

My fifth book “Diamond Lightbody”, gives us technical information about energy fields and the lightbody processes that lead to Diamond Light Consciousness. Included in this book are the Diamond Light Key Codes that when used, will activate this Consciousness within us, returning us to our Immortal state of Being.

My sixth book “Atlantis Aurora”, tells us about the changes that will take us into the Golden Age once more, and how we can reinstate this wonderful high vibrational reality, through the Quantum triggers contained within the words, and the codes that were used in the healing temples of Atlantis.

The seventh book is from Max the 13th Ancient crystal skull. The skulls act as living libraries, multidimensional portals, giving us the codes for our evolution, and the crystalline body transition. This book contains the codes which unlock All Realities, returning them to fluidity in order to be reformed to our liking. Connect with Max through the vibration of this book to change your Destiny !

“The Hyperborean Portal” is a channelling from Agartha, our hollow Earth brothers and sisters. It tells us about our connection with them, and how they will resurface to help us to establish Peace and Harmony upon our world. It contains the entry code to the Portal, and the new 5D reality.

“The Infinite Universe” has been given to us by Archangel Ariel. It describes the nature of Universal and multidimensional realities and the species which inhabit them. It explains our role and our subsequent and inevitable shift to the new 5D reality and how this will be achieved.

“Quantum Entanglement Theory-A Handbook For The Gateway”, tells us about the “Gateway Systems”, their purpose, and those who are working to role out these systems. They contain the 'DNA Reverse Program', designed to delete the Anunnaki programs, and genetic modifications which were given to us at the end of the Atlantean Period. This book invites you to get involved in returning us all to a state of Empowerment.

“The Universal I” from Metatron, gives his wisdom on the nature of the 'Self' and it's innate light, the unveiling of the Soul, the Merkabah fields, and our Soul mission and destiny as beings of light. Our inevitable rise to the higher echelons as more of our 'Self' is revealed. Contained within is Metatron's Advanced Program of Light.

“Crystals - Their role in Our Ascension” is channelled from the crystal consciousness of Antares. It gives detailed information about the crystals that have come here specifically to help us, with our Ascension process, listing those which have not yet been found. Included are techniques that will help to crystallize our energy matrix.

“The Ancient Crystals”, is a channelling from the Highest Light Consciousness to date. They contain a powerful energy matrix that is able to shift our reality and alter the course of our history forever. Connect with their amazing frequency now, if you wish to experience the greatest quantum change and growth possible, the STARLIGHT UPGRADE!

“Spirit As You”, gives detailed information about our inner Divine nature, our Lightbody changes, and our path to Greatness. This book contains an inbuilt frequency key which gives access to the Akashic Records, as it is time for All to be revealed!

“Star Crystals in Service”, is a channelling from many Star Crystals, who are connecting with us at this time to help us with the quantum shifts that are an inevitable part of our growth. They are introducing new programs of light, that are designed to activate our lightbodies. Connect with them now, to shift to the Spiritual Plane of Being, and higher realities.

“Inner Transformation” details our spiritual journey, and current entrance into the Golden Era. It contains energetic codes and triggers that will shift our energies, and expedite this wonderful transformation.

“The New You”, is a mini book detailing ancient systems of light that can be used to help us with our Awakening, and Empowerment. These are the esoteric teachings of long ago that are relevant now, as we face a huge shift in our reality.

“The Journey to Consciousness”, comes from a skull of Light, 'Diamond +', so called because he has a matrix which includes Gold and Silver. He is a powerful being of Light who, along with the other skulls, are helping us to advance to higher light octaves. As you read this book, his energy will integrate into your energy matrix, lifting it to new vibrational frequencies.

“Holding The Light”, is my next book. It tells us about our Divine Essence, and what constitutes Life and comprises our energy matrix, so that we can take steps to shift our vibration to the faster, higher frequencies of light consciousness.

“Unification & Healing” comes to us from the Annu. It sets out our journey and destination as spiritual beings of light. Giving us insights into our experiences through our vehicles of density, and ultimate transition to Light.

“The Gateway to Ascension” has been given to us by the Elders, or Ancient Ones. This book opens new portals of light for us, and assists in our lightbody processes, both in the integration of lightbody codes, and their activation.

“Timeline Merger” is being given to us as an opportunity to reset our trajectory, by merging with a significantly more advanced timeline. This will put an end to the eons of darkness on this world, heralding the arrival of a Great Light. Attunements and activations lie within this text...

I like to stay at the forefront of Spiritual change and am dedicated to bringing you the most advanced spiritual technology, from the Higher Self Aspects. Bless you All !

Expanding Your Heart Flame

You are birthed from the 'Source' of Life, as blue and white sparks of Life essence. As the Soul develops, these immortal sparks become ovid, as they take on shape and form, from that which is Infinite Being.

These souls are birthed into reality, to follow a divine journey. One of experience of the All, and its nature. In this way, the transcendent All becomes manifest through its many and varied constructs, at different levels of density. The formless becomes the form, and the form is the formless, the infinite and eternal paradox. No one knows the machinations of 'Source', except 'Source'. We can conjecture and theorize , through our limited mental construct, without avail.

The construct is dependent upon frequency, our individual and collective energy as it were. As we evolve, more data and information is added to our frequency field, through the absorption of light codes, thus expanding what is available to us. Our consciousness expands through these additions, giving us a greater awareness of what IS, though not the full picture of course.

As we evolve, our Heart Flame grows, the infinite spark of life, represented by the three fold flame of power, wisdom and love, the blue, yellow and pink rays of the Divine. Ideally these rays should be in harmony with each other, and in equal resonance. However the experiences of duality, have created an imbalance , within the three fold flame, which needs to be corrected , so that you can express your true divine nature once more. This can be done by the power of intention. Intention is a powerful tool, when used wisely. It can shape your reality, change your inner world to one of harmony and peace which will then be reflected back to you, from the outer levels of manifestation.

Ask that the rays of your three fold flame be equally balanced. This will create the harmony within, which is so needed in your world right now. When a sufficient balance is achieved, a tipping point will occur, and the Divine Heart Flame will be in the driving seat, of all change upon your world. This will be a day of joy, and great blessing for you all.

The infinite rays of manifestation, have been given to you, as your creation tools. They are not the tools of kindergarten, but the tools of mastery, that will help you to birth your Divinity into the world, thus becoming your own Source of Love, Wisdom and Power, through the great Almighty Father. Billions and billions of individual Sources, birthing new souls ultimately, which will take the journey that you have taken, and choose their own experiential soul path.

As yet, you know not what you will become. Know only that this Light never fails, this Love never departs from you. It is You. In the grand scheme of things, you are both the microcosm and the macrocosm of existence, radiating your unique frequencies into the Cosmos.

At the moment you are experiencing the birthing pains of a new reality. This will soon transpire, and the upheavals end. It will not always be this way during your birthing process. As you move into a finer etheric form, the denser experiences will flee from you, giving you a much easier transition. There is much to look forward to, in these new realities.

Frequency is Everything

Your frequency field contains the Codes of Enlightenment. These are set at certain stages of your development, and hold keys to unlocking greater potential from within. That which has been locked away for eons, will be triggered into activation, to fulfil your divine potential, moving you forwards into more expanded realities.

The time codes that have been left, are frequency dependent. In other words they will only activate once a certain frequency resonance has been achieved. When this occurs, your energy field will respond to the genetic signalling within the codes, which will initiate your awakening to former states of Being that you once enjoyed.

The code is inbuilt and cannot be overwritten, regardless of any bioengineering. It is an etheric signature, that is permanent and enduring, throughout time immemorial. This encoded information is held within a sacred space, and forms part of your divine flame, your eternal essence of Life. It is the eternal blueprint of your Spirit/Soul.

Timeline Merger

Frequency determines all life expressions within the Hologram. Your frequency signature is your GPS coordinate. It allows other beings of a similar resonance, to locate you. Since there is no real linear time and space, this is a useful means of multidimensional navigation. Therefore if you wish to draw the highest beings into your reality and experience, your frequency plays a key role in this attraction process. Knowing the laws of frequency is paramount to your freedom, since they are inextricably linked with the 'Law of Attraction'. If we ask for something to come into our lives, and we are not vibrating in alignment with its frequency, it will not appear in the physical, since there is no energy match. The desired result will not manifest until we adjust our frequency accordingly.

Your blueprint recalibrations depend upon frequency codes, that will reset your biology, back to its originally intended design. Hence your health and wellbeing is dependent upon frequency.

The origin of matter is defined by frequency. Its codons are the building blocks of form, creating the vehicles that you inhabit, and the environment around you. A change in the frequency patterns, causes a shift in the space/time continuum, and an alteration in the molecular density of form. This is how geometries change, and new templates are created, which will provide the structure for the development of your new lightbodies.

Key changes in the Hologram, are always initiated by the addition of new frequencies into the matrix. So it is increasingly important to introduce higher light frequencies into your energy fields, at regular intervals. This can be done effortlessly, using the 'Gateway Energy', with its superior frequency codes. This energy makes the additions that are needed automatically, adjusting your energy field by Divine Ordinance. The frequencies then become activated as your vibration elevates, and a higher conscious awareness, is subsequently achieved. The value of frequency is beyond comparison, when it comes to your Evolution..

The laws of Life are created by 'Source', as it weaves its divine patterning, within the invisible etheric realms.. Great forces come into play, to bring about the creation of all things in the visible Universe. Both the seen and the unseen are shaped and hewn by these forces, giving rise to great changes within the Cosmos.

Energy vibrations are effected by codes from the light spectrum, which create waves of energy, that in turn build form.. The firing of sequences is precise, having a divine objective, as its goal. The formation of codes, is a necessary part of the building process, which will contain key elements to be factored into the equation..

All building and formative energies, rely upon mathematics. The mathematical codes create the structures for your world. They embellish the DNA, adding information to it, to assist it in creation. The living light energies fire up the codes into activation, when the time is right, and when the environment is fertile. In this way there are no errors. Success is achieved, as the climate for growth is ripe.

The methodology is simple that creates what appears to be complex forms. Numerical sequences are used to form each building block. The energy of form being simple in itself. Creation becomes a continuous cycle of events, from the foundation upwards.. New genetic sequences are added, for a remodelling of form, which takes its information from the codes, and uses it to reshape the ether, which will become the new lightbody..

Mathematical principles are key. They are used in the configuration of Star Systems, the formation of Galaxies and Universes, and in the smallest bio unit in existence. The mathematical equations create the diversity of life, from the macrocosm to the microcosm. Scientific principles hold that numbers create mass. This is indeed true, however the number alone, is not significant in the creation process. It is the combination of numerical frequencies which determine the holographic imprint, that makes something appear in the physical. This is the driving force for change.

The blueprinting is done through key elements, which form the original genetic code.. From time to time modifications need to be made, in order to expedite the Evolutionary process. Such a time is occurring now, as your vehicular structures are bombarded with new photonic codes, that have been raised from the Quanta, with the express purpose of genetic improvement.. Form gives way to superior form, and an entirely new geometry is born, to support a new Divine Template.. The birthing process is continuing as all souls avail themselves of the frequency changes..

Timeline Merger

The merging of your timeline with that of a superior one, will course correct humanity's development. It will seed new light into the Earth's fields, freeing them from the grip of darkness, that has been seeking to take over and usurp the original Divine Plan for Life, and all beings here. The beneficial changes that will occur, will reset your trajectory completely, giving you an alignment of a superior nature.. Your density will lift, bringing Peace to the Earth Plane. This is the Peace that you have all been waiting for, the Peace that comes from 'Source' within, made manifest in the outer realms..

A hush shall reign over the Earth, as the drama is removed, and replaced with inner stillness, and a deep connection with your True Self.. You will know what it is to be free, free of the external bombarding of lower dimensional frequencies. Freedom from incessant mind chatter and the manipulation of thought form, which is an entity unto itself..

You will relax into the energy, finding comfort and release therein. As you live, breathe and become this energy, your inner guidance will surface. The Voice within will no longer be drowned and submerged by a sea of lower frequency. The voice of the Soul/Spirit will be heard clearly, as it was in bygone days.. As you follow this voice, separation will begin to dissolve, as you become aware of its illusory nature. All will begin to act as One Being, within One Unified Field of Light and Consciousness.. You will know yourselves to be the Great Light that you truly are...

The Great Light

A holographic update is imminent, one of tremendous proportion. Light encoded information has been stored by your cells, and is ripe for harvesting. A trigger point will occur shortly. This will activate all dormant frequencies and unused light codes. Those whose energy fields are prepared, will reap the benefit immediately. Those however that are in slow pulsations of light, will not experience anything dramatic. They will be held back until such a time as they are ready to embody the finer elements.

A huge burst of light will reverberate throughout the fields of life. Such a huge light has not yet been seen. It is the turning point for all life, the birthing of a new paradigm, far beyond anything that has previously been experienced. Nothing will be left untouched, by this amazing transformation. All thought forms will be transmuted into Light. Any remaining dross will be purged, to make way for the new frequencies, that will set your world alight with the Divine Fire. The Kingdom of Peace will come forth once again, and all will submit to it, in reverence to The One...

Your Divine Light Codes

Inherent within your plasma, are the frequency codes of your Divine Hologram. They are infused into your very Essence. Your holographic nature is but an outer reflection, a projection into the fields of density. It is changeable, mutable, as you grow and evolve. It is responsive to your expansion into the greater fields of light, corresponding with the faster frequencies, and higher light geometries.

This hologram contains activation points or nodes. These are the trigger points which catalyze change, and shift you into higher dimensional forms. You have reached one of these nodes now. Great illumination awaits the full activation of this nodal point. The frequency fields are changing for you, as you move more into Mastery and cognisance of your divinity.

Awareness is key to manifesting your true potential. Not awareness of your current dramas however, this does not serve you, and will only add to the miasmas that surround you. Since what you observe, you help to create, at the subatomic level. These subatomic and atomic particles, respond readily to your awareness, and maintained focus. As a Divine Being of Light, they serve your thought habits and patterns, remaining neutral to the outcome.

The Great Creator in you, is constantly building and destroying its reality. This is an infinite process of the divine nature. Anabolic and catabolic creations, are formed within the quantum field of life. All serving the Creator..

Know Thyself

Throughout the ages, man has sought to discover his true nature. He has resorted to many techniques and methods, hoping to reach enlightenment thereby. Many individuals have come forth with ideologies, religions and doctrines, to capture the imagination and attention of humanity, seeking to build a bridge to the Divine Consciousness. Some have succeeded in evolving the populous. Others have merely created dogmatic rules and principles to live by, which inhibit and strangle the life force, in its activity. Well meaning individuals, have created etheric prisons in this way...

Your Divine Centre contains everything you need, for your evolution. This cannot be found through others. It is a unique and personal journey, which must be undertaken, when the soul is ready, and desirous to know itself. This cannot be hurried or forced, and is purely a matter of divine timing. Only when the outer realms fail, do we look within. Life is but a fleeting experience of never ending events, when it is viewed from the physical. When viewed from the spiritual however, it is a continuous spiral movement, ever lifting you into newer realities of time and space, without beginning or end. Nothing is fixed, all is interchangeable, receptive to the impressions of Spirit. To know yourself, is to know your divinity, and to claim your birthright, as heirs to the throne of God...

The Divine Design

Your creators have placed many templates at your disposal. These are the templates of renewed forms, born from the crystalline matrix and light spheres, containing huge potential for growth.

Your elevation to higher forms is an inevitable part of the process. You have a shared DNA with your creators, which makes you unique as a species. The crowning glory are the many codons of light, which lie dormant within you at present. Soon to be released into the fields of activity. The codes will redesign the human template, reorganizing its features, and eliminating those that do not match the higher frequency fields, and light matrices.

All is moving to a conclusion, the successful birthing of a new Divine Being. One that can take its place with others, within the Cosmic Hierarchy. One of Great Empowerment, Awareness and Light. Acting in conjunction with the edicts of the Divine Mind. One of great power and influence, within the spheres. Great changes lie ahead, of that you can be sure. You are coming into your own, as many revelations are made to you, about your true nature, as timeless beings of formless light. Your entire outlook will be revised, given the information contained within the new encodings. These will set the seal for this change...

Timeline Merger

Your Diurnal Self

Many eons ago, before the time matrix was in force, you existed in potential, carrying the Great Flame of Life within, holding the possibility of all crystalline templates for your expressions. You chose to explore many vistas, in order to serve the Whole, for the creation of the Ultimate Lightbody. This was in many ways an experiment of light coherence, from the Void of Creation. The Infinite, limitless potentiate, from the innermost fundamental level, in much the same way as the 'Elohim' who merge with 'Source Mind'.

The plan has been unfolding well upon your world, and all ensuing possibilities, have served a divine purpose, within the great scheme of things. More light has come forth in response to the darkness, to establish the balance. Both are eternal partners, weaving their intricate patterns in life. Such is the beauty of the Cosmos. Both light and shade create a fuller picture, of the many and varied quantum realities, that are born out of necessity. Neither holds power over the other. Both exist as facets of the 'One' Life. The Duality Matrix is forever displaying one or the other. The pendulum swings back and forth, ad infinitum..

The Reality Game

As co-creators with the Divine, you are all manufacturing centres. You create your realities endlessly, out of the substance of Source. Your reality fields are forever changing, in response to new input from the vibrational fields of resonance. You are masters at creation, though you know it not. Your emotional nature lies unharnessed, and bears witness to the affectations of your lower self.

A change in frequency, will see a shift occur, to a new vibrational pattern. One which will serve you better, should you align with it. Greatness is contained within you. You are only living a small fragment of your true potential. There is so much more to be realized from within.

You are fashioning your lives based upon emotional response, and an antiquated belief system, which you have adopted throughout generations. Your DNA has held the ancestral memories of darkness, keeping you vibrating at lower levels of frequency. Far lower than is fit for a Divine Being, from the One Source .

This must change. Now is the time for elevation and liberation. Embrace the new as it unfolds each day. Set your intention to receive only the highest frequencies, that are available to you. In this way, you will be forever reaching upward to higher climbs. Unlocking more of your infinite potential, from the void. It is time to climb out of the pit that you have successfully dug for yourselves. Ascending the spiral ladder to Mastery instead..

Multidimensional Resonance

The seeds of life are forever germinating, throughout all realities. They bear the fruit of your toil and labour, returning to you that which you are a match for. The exact match is always found, through the 'Law of Attraction', facilitating the ongoing energy dynamic, which acts as a learning tool. The cycles continue, until such a time as you are able to break free, breaking out of the mould of continuity, to reset the parameters for growth. These breakouts are often spasmodic, yielding sudden change within the matrix. You have reached a breakout point now, as a collective, largely due to the vast numbers of starseeds, that have incarnated upon your world.

You are about to realize your greater potential, through a different lens, or perspective.. The role of consciousness is changing, as it expands and incorporates new information, from the Higher Light realms. .

The energy dynamics within your matrix will be changing, to encompass much higher frequencies, than you are presently used to. Upgrades are necessary, to ensure you achieve resonance with these higher light fields..

As you read these words, you will receive a downloading of higher dimensional codes. These will form the catalyst for a greater awakening within you.. Those that are ready to go beyond the Earth Matrix, will transition.. Those that are ready to embody a higher merkabah vehicle, will do so.. Whatever level of growth you have attained to, you will transcend.. Allow the activations to commence...

Timeline Merger

Your Divine Birthright

Your genetic encoding is preset for excellence. As a species you have a rare gift, in that you have the 12 strand DNA Templates built into your Genome. This can never be erased. It forms an integral part of your Soul blueprint, though it has not been active within you for eons..

The Template codes are awakening again, as your photonic resonance increases. Your genetic lineage is that of Greatness. Untold wonders lie ahead of you, those that are completely unimaginable..

Preparations are being made to advance your race, so that it can take its place, once again among the Star Nations. Contributions are being given from other races, who wish to see you advance. They are awaiting your return dear ones..

The multilayering of your vehicles, is impacting upon you, causing a bleed through, as the boundaries begin to dissolve and break down.. It is thus that a merger will become possible, and unification will be achieved once more..

The Divine Light that is You, will not be held back. It will burst forth like a beacon, as the obstructions are being removed, one by one. Until your inner light radiates for all to see, across the Cosmos, and beyond, through all realities and timeframes.. Blessed is this Light... We are now giving you attunements, that will add the necessary information, to your energy matrix, that will assist in the activation of this higher state... Please relax to receive.. Only those that are ready for this merger, will be transfigured... Welcome Home! ...
